Shandong Airlines Launches New Narita - Jinan Service on 18 August 2022!

Shandong Airlines (IATA code: SC) will launch a new service between Narita and Jinan commencing on Thursday, 18 August 2022. The airline is a full-service carrier using Jinan Yaoqiang International Airport in Shandong Province as its main hub. This will be the first scheduled passenger service linking Narita and Jinan and is expected to contribute deeper ties between the two nations and further economic activity.

Jinan City, with a population of more than 8 million people, is the capital of Shandong Province facing the Bohai Sea in eastern China. It is also known as the City of Springs because of the many springs where pure water bubbles to the surface in the city and is a famous tourist destination noted for Shandong cuisine which is characterized by the use of flavors found in certain ingredients.

Narita Airport will continue to expand its network to offer our customers a more convenient selection of destinations. Narita Airport's network now offers more convenient options, particularly with the new service to Jinan operated by Shandong Airlines.
