DETAILED REGULATIONS ON SECURITY DEPOSIT AND PAYMENT OF CHARGES

18 March 2024 Ei E Ki No. 1098

Revised:

17 June 2025 Ei E Ki No.1023

[Purpose]

Article 1

These Detailed Regulations provide for necessary matters concerning the placement of a security deposit and the payment of charges by air transport operators at Narita International Airport (the “Airport”), pursuant to the Related Regulations set forth in Article 2, Clause 1 (1).

[Definitions]

Article 2

The terms used in these Detailed Regulations have the meanings specified below, and the meanings of any terms not specified in these Detailed Regulations are as specified in the Related Regulations:

- (1) Related Regulations: the Narita International Airport Administrative Regulations, the Service Regulations on Baggage Handling Facilities, etc, the Regulations on Passenger Service Facility and Other Charges, the Service Regulations Governing Check-in Counter Facilities, Terms of Use of Check-in Devices and contracts concluded between Narita International Airport Corporation (“NAA”) and airline companies, which provide for the application of these Detailed Regulations;
- (2) Existing Air Transport Operator: an air transport operator providing scheduled air transport service at the Airport during the period from April 1, 2023, to March 31, 2024;
- (3) Placement of a security deposit: the placement of a security deposit made based on the provisions of the Related Regulations and these Detailed Regulations;
- (4) Charges: charges calculated by NAA based on the Related Regulations plus an amount equivalent to consumption tax and local consumption tax (excluding landing charges and parking charges for aircraft exempted from consumption tax pursuant to the provision of Article 7 of the Consumption Tax Act (Act No. 108 of 1988)); and
- (5) Airport Facilities: facilities set forth in the Related Regulations.

[Placement of Security Deposit by Air Transport Operators Providing Scheduled Air Transport Service]

Article 3

1. An air transport operator providing scheduled air transport service (“Scheduled Air Transport Operator”) shall place a security deposit in accordance with the Related Regulations, and fill in a Notification (Form No. 1) and submit it to NAA 30 days prior to the scheduled date of commencement of service. NAA shall calculate the amount of security deposit by the formula set forth in Appended Tables based on the content of the Notification and notify the Scheduled Air Transport Operator of the calculated amount by means of a Written Advice. (Form No. 1). For the avoidance of doubt, no interest shall be added to a security deposit.

2. A Scheduled Air Transport Operator must place a security deposit in the amount specified in the Written Advice referred to in the preceding Clause by either of the methods specified in (1) and (2) of this clause by the day preceding the date of commencement of service; provided, however, that, the Scheduled Air Transport Operator may make deposit by a new deadline, designated by NAA, that falls on or after the date of commencement of service only if it obtains written approval from NAA in advance:

- (1) deposit the entire amount in Japanese currency; and
- (2) submit a guarantee form or Standby L/C (“Bank Guarantee”) that satisfies all of the following requirements with regard to the entire amount or a larger amount:
 - (i) the Bank Guarantee is prepared using the form designated by NAA (Form No. 2) or the form approved by NAA as being equivalent to Form No. 2 in terms of the content thereof;
 - (ii) the Bank Guarantee is issued by a person engaging in banking with the license obtained from the Prime Minister as provided in Article 4, paragraph (1), of the Banking Act;
 - (iii) the Bank Guarantee is issued by a bank that is given an A or higher rating by any of the five rating agencies, Moody's, Standard & Poor's, Fitch, JCR and R&I;
 - (iv) the bank's head office or branch office located in Japan is designated to conduct all procedures related to the Bank Guarantee, such as receiving a claim for payment and paying the claimed amount; and
 - (v) the period of guarantee is until the end of June of the next fiscal year or longer; provided, however, that this does not apply if NAA approves.

3. The amount of security deposit shall be reviewed every fiscal year, and a Scheduled Air Transport Operator that has already placed a security deposit shall fill in a Notification of Change (Form No. 3) and submit it to NAA by the end of February of each year. In case that the Scheduled Air Transport Operator makes a request to change the method for placement of a security deposit, such a request shall be made only at the time of submitting the Notification of Change. NAA shall calculate the amount of security deposit by the formula set forth in the Appended Tables based on the content of the Notification of Change, compare the calculated amount and the amount of security deposit already placed, and notify the Scheduled Air Transport Operator of the difference and the settlement thereof by means of a Written Advice (Form No. 3). NAA shall settle the difference by any of the following methods by the end of April of each year:

- (1) if the Scheduled Air Transport Operator continues to make a deposit in Japanese currency, when the amount of security deposit for the relevant fiscal year exceeds the amount of security deposit for the preceding fiscal year, the Scheduled Air Transport Operator shall make an additional deposit for the difference, and when the amount of security deposit for the relevant fiscal year falls below the amount of security deposit for the preceding fiscal year, NAA shall refund the difference to the Scheduled Air Transport Operator at its request;
- (2) if the Scheduled Air Transport Operator starts to make a new deposit in Japanese currency, it shall deposit the amount notified, and NAA shall return the already submitted Bank Guarantee after the new deposit is made; and

- (3) if the Scheduled Air Transport Operator makes a deposit by submitting a Bank Guarantee, it shall submit a new Bank Guarantee that satisfies all the requirements specified in Clause 2(2) for the amount notified, irrespective of whether there is any amount to be settled, and NAA shall refund the already deposited cash or return the already submitted Bank Guarantee after the new Bank Guarantee is submitted. NAA shall refund cash at the request of the Scheduled Air Transport Operator.

4. If a Bank Guarantee submitted by a Scheduled Air Transport Operator ceases to satisfy any of the requirements specified in Clause 2(2) within the period of its validity, the Scheduled Air Transport Operator shall report this to NAA without delay, and newly deposit cash or submit a Bank Guarantee pursuant to Clause 2.

5. If a Scheduled Air Transport Operator that has placed a security deposit terminates its scheduled air transport service at the Airport, it shall submit an Application for Refund of Security Deposit (Form No. 4) after the termination of its scheduled air transport service. NAA may settle Charges that are due and payable by the Scheduled Air Transport Operator, by making deduction from security deposit if the deposit has been made with cash, or by requesting payment from the issuing bank of the Bank Guarantee if the deposit has been made with a Bank Guarantee, irrespective of the number of times of settlement. NAA shall notify the Scheduled Air Transport Operator of the details of the refund by means of an Approval of Refund of Security Deposit (Form No. 4), and refund the already deposited cash or return the already submitted Bank Guarantee at the request of the Scheduled Air Transport Operator if there is a remaining balance to be refund; provided, however, that if the Scheduled Air Transport Operator has unperformed obligations other than Charges, the obligation shall be offset by the already deposited cash or the already submitted Bank Guarantee.

[Exemption from or Reduction of Security Deposit]

Article 4

1. NAA shall grant an Existing Air Transport Operator exemption from the requirement to place a security deposit except that it falls under either of the cases set forth in (1) and (2) below.

- (1) The Scheduled Air Transport Operator's payment of any Charges owed to NAA, is in arrears for 30 days or more from the deadline designated by NAA after the effective date of these Detailed Regulations; or
- (2) The Scheduled Air Transport Operator falls under any of the following cases.
 - (i) a petition is filed for provisional seizure, provisional disposition, compulsory execution, auction of properties or other protective foreclosing action;
 - (ii) an application is filed for bankruptcy, corporate rehabilitation, civil reorganization, etc., or a liquidation action is initiated or bank transactions are suspended;
 - (iii) the representative is placed under guardianship or curatorship;
 - (iv) a trustee is appointed by a court order or for any other reason;
 - (v) there are arrears or default of obligations to NAA, or there is a concern of serious difficulty in fulfilment of obligations;

- (vi) the Scheduled Air Transport Operator is ordered to suspend its operation or its air operator's certificate (AOC) is revoked;
- (vii) the Scheduled Air Transport Service cancels all scheduled flights to the Airport without prior notice of an adequate period to NAA; or
- (viii) an event similar to any of the above occurs.

2. If an Existing Air Transport Operator falls under either of the cases of the preceding Clause and place a security deposit, the preceding Article, Clauses 1 and 2 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the cases; the phrase "30 days prior to the scheduled date of commencement of service" of the Clause 1 and "the day preceding the date of commencement of service" of the Clause 2 shall be replaced with "the date designated by NAA"; provided, however, that the proviso of the Clause 2 shall not apply in the cases.

3. Even when an Existing Air Transport Operator falls under either of (1) and (2) of the Clause 1, NAA may, at its discretion if it finds this appropriate, grant the Existing Air Transport Operator reduction of a security deposit.

4. NAA may, at its discretion if it finds this appropriate, grant exemption from or reduction of a security deposit to be placed (hereinafter referred to as "exemption or reduction") by a Scheduled Air Transport Operator other than an Existing Air Transport Operator.

[Placement of Security Deposit upon Resumption of Service by Scheduled Air Transport Operator]

Article 5

If a Scheduled Air Transport Operator resumes its service after all flights are suspended at the Airport, it shall place a security deposit pursuant to Article 3, Clauses 1 and 2 regardless of whether the last day of service operation is before or after the effective date of these Detailed Regulations; provided, however, that if a Scheduled Air Transport Operator resumes its service within one year from the day following the last day of service operation and was granted an exemption or reduction on the last day of service operation in the preceding Article, the preceding Article shall be applied.

[Prepayment of Charges]

Article 6

If a Scheduled Air Transport Operator falls under any of the following cases, it must prepay Charges to NAA. NAA may determine whether it shall be continued or not every fiscal year in consideration of payment condition of Charges from the Scheduled Air Transport Operator:

- (1) the Scheduled Air Transport Operator's payment of Charges payable to NAA on or after the effective date of these Detailed Regulations is in arrears for 30 days or more from the deadline designated by NAA;
- (2) the Scheduled Air Transport Operator falls under any of the cases set forth in Article 4, Clause 1(2);
- (3) the Scheduled Air Transport Operator places a security deposit pursuant to Article 5, and it fell under any of the cases set forth in Article 4, Clause 1(2) before resuming its service; or
- (4) the Scheduled Air Transport Operator does not place a security deposit.

2. A Scheduled Air Transport Operator that prepays Charges pursuant to the preceding Clause must notify NAA of the scheduled number of flights for the next month by the date designated by NAA. NAA shall calculate the amount of prepayment of Charges for the next month using the unit price specified in the Appended Tables and the number of flights reported by the Scheduled Air Transport Operator, and notify the Scheduled Air Transport Operator of the calculated amount, and the Scheduled Air Transport Operator shall prepay the Charges for the next month in Japanese currency by the date designated by NAA. If there is any difference between the prepaid amount and the actual amount of Charges, NAA shall make a refund to or request additional payment of Charges from the Scheduled Air Transport Operator, and settle the difference; provided, however, that NAA shall make no refund if the Scheduled Air Transport Operator does not place a security deposit, the Scheduled Air Transport Operator prepays only part of the Charges specified in this clause, or Scheduled Air Transport Operator does not pay the Charges specified in Article 8.

3. In the case referred to in the preceding Clause, NAA shall appropriate any Charges to be refunded to the Charges payable for the month designated by NAA.

4. In the case referred to in Clause 2, the Scheduled Air Transport Operator shall pay any Charges additionally requested by NAA in addition to the Charges payable for the month designated by NAA.

[Treatment in the Case of Arrears in Placement of Security Deposit]

Article 7

1. If a Scheduled Air Transport Operator is in arrears in placement of a security deposit or payment of Charges specified in the preceding Article and Article 8, it shall be treated as follows:

- (1) if the Scheduled Air Transport Operator is in arrears during the first fiscal year of the security deposit placement, the amount of security deposit specified in Article 3, Clause 1 shall be doubled and it shall pay the shortage to NAA by the date designated by NAA; if a Scheduled Air Transport Operator is in arrears for the following fiscal year or thereafter of the security deposit placement, the amount of security deposit specified in the Clause 3 shall be doubled and it shall pay the shortage to NAA by the date designated by NAA;
- (2) if the Scheduled Air Transport Operator has been granted exemption or reduction of a security deposit, the exemption or reduction shall be revoked, and it shall deposit the amount specified in Article 3, Clauses 1 by the date designated by NAA;
- (3) The Scheduled Air Transport Operator shall lose its entitlement to receive various incentives provided by NAA including those already withheld if regulations stipulating the payment of the incentives provide for the application of these Detailed Regulations; and
- (4) NAA may suspend the use of airport facilities by the Scheduled Air Transport Operator or take any other necessary measures.

[Revocation of Preferential Status as to Payment]

Article 8

If a Scheduled Air Transport Operator falls under any of the cases set forth in Article 4, Clause 1(2), its preferential status in terms of payment period shall be revoked, and it must pay the Charges by the date designated by NAA; and NAA shall not be held liable for any damage incurred as a result of the revocation of the preferential status in terms of payment period:

[Arrears]

Article 9

If a Scheduled Air Transport Operator is in arrears in placement of a security deposit or payment of Charges, NAA shall collect from it a delinquent charge calculated at the rate of 14.5% per annum for the period from the day following the deadline for deposit or payment until the completion of deposit or payment.

[Appropriation of Security Deposit]

Article 10

If a Scheduled Air Transport Operator that has placed a security deposit falls under any of the cases set forth in Article 4, Clause 1(2), NAA may appropriate the security deposit for the items in the order from the largest amount of Charges payable by it. In such cases, the Scheduled Air Transport Operator which continues its service operation at the Airport shall deposit the shortage which is caused by the appropriation for obligations to NAA by the date designated by NAA.

[Non-Assignment to a third party]

Article 11

A Scheduled Air Transport Operator that has placed a security deposit must not transfer its claim for refund of a security deposit to a third party, create a security interest on such claim or otherwise dispose of such claim.

[Procedures of Charges etc. by Air Transport Service Support Provider by Proxy]

Article 12

If a Scheduled Air Transport Operator entrusts an air transport service support provider to carry out procedures specified in these Detailed Regulations by proxy, it shall submit a Power of Attorney (Form No. 5) to NAA every time it carries out the procedures to indicate that it has given the air transport service support provider the right to represent in any and all procedures specified in these Detailed Regulations; provided, however, that the method of placement of a security deposit in this case is limited to the method set forth in Article 3, Clause 2(1).

[Establishment of Agreements and Changes of Contents]

Article 13

1. Upon using the Airport, a Scheduled Air Transport Operator specified in these Detailed Regulations shall acknowledge and consent to the contents of these Detailed Regulations.
2. NAA may change the contents of these Detailed Regulations.

[Miscellaneous Provisions]

Article 14

1. These Detailed Regulations shall be applied based on the Japanese text as the original and construed in accordance with the laws of Japan, and any matters not addressed in these Detailed Regulations shall be subject to the laws of Japan.
2. In the event of any matter not addressed in these Detailed Regulations, NAA and a Scheduled Air Transport Operator shall hold mutual consultation.
3. Any and all disputes, controversies or differences of opinions arising out of or relating to these Detailed Regulations shall be referred to arbitration in Singapore in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Singapore International Arbitration Center that are effective at that time, and ultimately resolved by such arbitration; provided, however, that in the case relating to a Bank Guarantee, the Chiba District Court or the Chiba Summary Court that has jurisdiction over the location of NAA shall have the exclusive jurisdiction as the court of first-instance.

Supplementary Provisions (Ei E Ki No. 1098 of 18 March 2024)

1. These Detailed Regulations come into effect as of 1 April 2024.
2. A Scheduled Air Transport Operator that has already executed an agreement on the placement of a security deposit with NAA before these Detailed Regulations come into effect shall continue to place a security deposit even after the agreement expires, and the security deposit thus placed shall be treated pursuant to these Detailed Regulations.

Supplementary Provisions (Ei E Ki No.2013 of 8 August 2024)

These Detailed Regulations come into effect as of 1 September 2024.

Supplementary Provisions (Ei E Ki No.1023 of 17 June 2025)

These Detailed Regulations come into effect as of 17 June 2025. However, in the case of flights scheduled to be in service by June 30, 2025, the previous provisions shall still apply.

Appended Table (Re.: Article 3)

1. The amount of security deposit to be placed for the first year shall be the amount calculated by multiplying the unit price per flight specified in the following table by the number of flights expected to be operated within three months from the month following the month of commencement of service; in the case of passenger flights, the amount calculated by multiplying the monthly unit price by 3 shall be added.

2. The amount of security deposit to be placed in the fiscal year following the fiscal year when the placement of a security deposit commences and subsequent fiscal years shall be the amount calculated by multiplying the unit price per flight specified in the following table by the number of flights expected to be operated within three months from April of the following fiscal year; in the case of passenger flights, the amount calculated by multiplying the monthly unit price by 3 shall be added.. However, in the case of a Scheduled Air Transport Operator that has been granted exemption from or reduction of a security deposit pursuant to Article 4, Clauses 3 and 4, the amount shall be determined in consideration of the content of such exemption or reduction; and in the case of a Scheduled Air Transport Operator whose security deposit to be placed has been doubled pursuant to Article 7, Clause 1(1), the amount shall be double the amount calculated by the above formula. If a difference between the amount thus calculated and the amount of security deposit already placed is $\pm 10\%$ or more, it shall be settled.

3. Domestic flights shall be categorized as follows in accordance with Airports where a Scheduled Air Transport Operator took off just before arrival at the Airport.

- | (Category) | (Airports where a Scheduled Air Transport Operator took off just before arrival at the Airport) |
| • Group ① • • • | CTS, ITM, FUK |
| • Group ② • • • | KIX, HIJ, TAK, MYJ, KKJ, NGS, KMJ, OIT, KMI, KOJ, KUH, HKD, KCZ, YGJ, IWK, TKS, KMQ, AKJ, OBO, MMB, AXT, UBJ, AOJ, SYO, TOY, UKB, TTJ, IZO, OKJ, HSG, NGO, WKJ, MBE, SHB, OKD, MSJ, ONJ, GAJ, NTQ, SHM, IWJ, Others |
| • Group ③ • • • | OKA, Remote islands (including SHI, ISG, ASJ) |

4. With regard to the unit price which is not specified in the following tables, a Scheduled Air Transport Operator must inform NAA of the details of the aircraft for its service operation, and NAA shall calculate the unit price for a security deposit based on the content of the information and notify the Scheduled Air Transport Operator of it.
