

Hawaiian Airlines to Launch New Narita - Seattle Route from May 13, 2025

Hawaiian Airlines (IATA Code: HA) have launched a new flight service between Narita and Seattle from Tuesday, May 13, 2025. Seattle is the largest city in the State of Washington, the United States. Located in the northern part of the West Coast, it is one of the closest cities on the U.S. mainland to Japan. Known for its rich natural surroundings as its features, the city is also called the “Emerald City” because of its beautiful landscape full of greenery and water. It is an attractive city in which visitors can enjoy magnificent, breathtaking natural scenery, such as the Olympic National Park, listed as a World Heritage site, and Mount Rainier, the highest peak in the State of Washington. At the same time, it is also famous as the birthplace of world-famous companies, such as Amazon, Microsoft, and Starbucks.

Through Hawaiian's combination with Alaska Airlines*1, Seattle becomes one of the best gateways to the continental U.S. from Japan. Alaska offers more destinations and more nonstop flights from Seattle than any other airline hub on the West Coast – allowing for convenient flight connections to more than 100 U.S. cities. We invite you enjoy a comfortable journey to North America with the convenient transfers from Seattle and the warm hospitality unique to Hawaiian Airlines.
